

2023 New Expansion Developer's Note

Part 3

Hello, this is GM Daniel and I'm here today to explain some of the questions that our adventurers of Madrigal might have about the upcoming update.

Before we start, I have to warn you that the screenshots from this Developer's note have been taken from the development server so it might be different when we patch it to the live servers! First off, I would like to explain the "PK Rework" that is coming to this update.

PK Rework

We received lots of feedback about multiple pitfalls of current PK system. Unwanted attacks on other players from AOE skills, no incentives, and more. Therefore, we have made some changes to the system that should revolutionize the PK channel, like fixing the AOE issue.

We have found that the PK incentives on the PK channel isn't inviting enough. So in order to invigorate the activity on the PK channel, we have modified and added some new features!

After the update, the current Karma rank and the nickname color change that is related to this will be reset on all characters. Also, the monsters on the PK channel will have a chance to drop a new item called "PK Chip" when you defeat them.

(PK Chip drop)

- PK Chip will only be obtainable on the PK Channel.

New Karma System: If you defeat other players, you will be able to obtain some of the PK Chips that the other player has been collecting. (If the other player has no PK Chip, there are no PK chips to be dropped!) The more you collect PK Chips from other players, the amount you lose upon death will increase accordingly. Additionally, after the update, there will be 2 types of Karma level added (Pink/Red).

You can use the "PK Chip" that you have obtained to recover your Karma, or you can wait for a certain period for your Karma to recover without spending them.

IMPORTANT NOTE: 'PK Chip' can only be stored in your inventory. 'PK Chip' can be used by exchanging with the appropriate NPC, much like the Guild Siege Chips. Examples of prizes that will be available are items that change name color, various new cosmetic glows, a ticket to Kebaras, and more in the future!

Secret Room

The second topic I've prepared today is the new weekly Guild ranking dungeon: the Secret Room! I'm pleased to announce the Secret Room through this update.

Up to 40 members of your guild can participate in the Secret Room dungeon, and you will be given 2 hours to clear it! There is a key part of this: you must be the fastest to clear the dungeon in order to score high on the weekly ranking! Prove that your guild is the best through Secret Room and aim for great rewards that will be revealed later! Also, you only have 1 chance to challenge the Secret Room per week, so plan strategically and carefully with your fellow guild members.

- This is part of the Secret Room dungeon. Defeat the monsters with your guild members and aim for the high rankings to obtain great rewards!

- Your goal is simple: Clear the Secret room at the fastest time possible!

Ticket System

Last but not least, the final part I would like to share today is the new contents that you can obtain via the new PK system and Secret Room: Ticket areas. These areas will provide 10% extra EXP, so you can obtain quite a bit of EXP when you play in them!

If you obtain a lot of PK chips on the PK channel or if your guild ranks high enough in the secret room, your leveling desires will be fulfilled with the use of a Kebaras Ticket or a Tower Ticket!

- You will be warped immediately to the area after you use the ticket.

The ticket has a maximum use time before it expires. You can view the remaining time in the tooltip of the ticket item. When your use time is up, you will be automatically expelled from the Ticket Area. (Therefore, when you are expelled suddenly, that means your ticket use time is up!)

The ticket areas use the new layer system, meaning that the monsters and players on each layer are exclusive to that layer. If one layer is too busy, feel free to go to another layer!

That is all the update contents I can explain for today! From the PK rework that will make you duel with others, Secret Room dungeon that you can enjoy with your guildmates, to Premium Ticket that will give you additional EXP benefits, which of these contents are you most excited for?

This update marks the beginning of the journey we will be embarking on 2023! Please enjoy Flyff Universe in 2023 as well and I, GM Daniel, will be back with more news in the future!

Thank you!
